

Education and Careers Expo 2012
and "Police Recruitment Application Express"

The upcoming Education and Careers Expo 2012 (the Expo) will be held at the Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre (HKCEC) from 9th to 12th February, 2012. The Force will take part in the exhibition to introduce police work to the youth and those interested to join the Force by offering the latest news and information regarding police recruitment along the theme of a Professional Multifaceted Law Enforcement Agency and Caring Organisation.

Ten police units, including Police Dog Unit, Small Boat Unit, Traffic, Emergency Unit, Explosive Ordnance Disposal, Airport Security Unit, Narcotics Bureau, Crime Prevention Bureau, and Identification Bureau, will showcase their works and equipment at various sessions. The Weapon Training Division will also set up a "mini-range" at the Expo with officers demonstrate the use of force to visitors. Visitors will also have an opportunity to experience the use of firearms (by laser device) in simulated scenarios.

Members of the public who are interested to learn more about the Force or to become a police officer are welcome to visit us at the Expo. Officers of Recruitment Division (RECDIV) will process applications for the posts of Probationary Inspector, Police Constable and Auxiliary Police Constable at the spot. Initial screening, including eyesight test, weight and height measurement, will also be conducted.

To further facilitate those who are unable to make an application at the Expo, RECDIV will also hold an "Application Express" on 13/F, Police Headquarters, from 6th to 17th February, 2012, including the weekend in between.

Don't miss the chance to share our meaningful work with your family members and friends. See you at the Careers Expo!
