

Information Notes

Application for Licence for Possession (Security Guard)

Notes for applicant

- The applicant must be an employee of a company licensed to possess arms and ammunition for the purpose of providing armed security guarding services.
- When considering an application, the Commissioner of Police (“the Commissioner”) shall, in addition to any other relevant matter that he may reasonably take into consideration, have regard to-
 - a. whether the applicant is a fit and proper person to be granted a licence, such as:
 - i. whether he has any criminal record;
 - ii. whether he has any medical history which may affect his ability of handling the arms and ammunition under application; and
 - iii. whether his physical and mental conditions are considered suitable.
 - b. whether there is good reason for that applicant to hold a licence; and
 - c. whether it is objectionable, for reasons of public safety and security, to grant the licence to that applicant.
- Applicants, both for new and renewal applications, will be required to undertake and pass an arms handling test. The employer of the applicants should arrange with the Police Licensing Office for the applicants to attend the handling test. The qualification for passing the test (part I and/or part II of the test) is valid for 3 months and the applicant has to test again if the qualification expires.
- The applicant shall possess a valid Security Personnel Permit (Category C).
- The upper age limit of the applicant is 55 years.
- The application for renewal must be submitted to the Police Licensing Office at least 3 months prior to expiry of the current licence.
