NOTES

1. For data subjects who are Hong Kong Identity Card holders only. The identity card number need not be provided in this Form if you have reasonable grounds to believe that this will not be necessary for the unique identification of the data subject in the circumstances.
2. Completion of this part is not obligatory but completion will assist in locating any relevant data.
3. Under section 19(1A) of the Ordinance, in case the Hong Kong Police do not hold any criminal conviction data against the data subject, only a verbal reply will be given.
4. Under section 2(1) of the Ordinance, a “relevant person”, in relation to an individual, means: (a) where the individual is a minor, a person who has parental responsibility over the minor; (b) where the individual is incapable of managing his own affairs, a person appointed by a court to manage those affairs; or (c) where the individual is mentally incapacitated within the meaning of section 2 of the Mental Health Ordinance (Cap. 136), (i) a person appointed under section 44A, 59O or 59Q of that Ordinance to be the guardian of that individual or (ii) if the guardianship of that individual is vested in, or the functions of the appointed guardian are to be performed by, the Director of Social Welfare or any other person under section 44B(2A) or (2B) or 59T(1) or (2) of that Ordinance, the Director of Social Welfare or that other person. All Criminal Conviction Data access requests shall be made in person unless exempted with a valid ground by the Officer-in-charge of the Criminal Conviction Data (CCD) Office. The data subject shall be present at the CCD office with the “relevant person” in the first instance.
5. Fill in here details of any documentary proof of “relevant person” status, e.g. copy birth certificate, copy court order, written authorization etc., which you will provide with the Data Access Request Form.
6. Failure to provide the additional information as required may result in the data access request being refused, or not being complied with to the desired extent.
7. According to section 28 of the Ordinance, a fee may be charged for compliance with a data access request under section 18(1)(a) or (b), which fee must not be excessive. Compliance with a data access request may be refused unless and until any such fee has been paid.
8. All documents relating to this data access request, including the fingerprints, will be normally retained by the Police for one year. Thereafter, they will be destroyed.
9. Where the Form or these Notes contain a summary of the relevant requirements of the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance, the summary is provided for reference only. For the complete and definitive statement of the relevant provisions of the Ordinance, please refer to the Ordinance itself.
