

Information Notes

Application for Arms Dealer's Licence

A. Notes for applicants

- When considering an application for a dealer's licence, the Commissioner of Police ("the Commissioner") shall, in addition to any other relevant matter that he may reasonably take into consideration, have regard to-
 1. whether the applicant is a fit and proper person to be granted a licence, such as
 - whether the applicant has any criminal record;
 - whether the applicant has any medical history which may affect his / her ability to handle the arms and ammunition under application; and
 - whether the applicant physical and mental conditions are considered suitable.
 2. whether there is good reason for that applicant to hold a licence; and
 3. whether it is objectionable, for reasons of public safety and security, to grant the licence to that applicant.
- The following matters will also be considered when assessing an application-
 1. whether the applicant has fulfilled other statutory requirements, such as
 - whether the Director of Lands considers that the subject land use is permissible under the land lease conditions;
 - whether design of the premises concerned complies with the requisite fire safety requirements;
 - if ammunition will be stored in the premises, whether the Commissioner of Mines will issue the required licence under the Dangerous Goods Ordinance, Cap. 295, to the applicant;
 - if an armoury is built, whether the Director of Buildings considers that the construction complies with the provisions under the Buildings Ordinance, Cap. 123.
 2. whether the security arrangements for the proposed premises and armoury are up to the required standard;
 3. whether there are any objections from local residents and other inhabitants situated in the same building of the proposed place for dealing, and whether there is any violation of the Deed of Mutual Covenant;
 4. whether the existence of an arms dealer will pose any security risks to other persons in the vicinity;
 5. whether the arms and ammunition proposed for dealing are suitable to be imported and stored in Hong Kong;
 6. previous experience of the applicant relating to the dealing in and handling of arms and ammunition.

B. Application Procedures

- You may opt for submitting your application and documents required for application in person or online. If you opt for online submission, please refer to "Step 1 – Notes for Applicants" of the online application form via <https://www.licensing.police.gov.hk/licensing> for application requirements.
- Documents required for application include:
 1. a copy of your Hong Kong Identity Card (except for applicants who opted to use our online application system);
 2. 2 recent full face photographs (4cm x 5cm);
 3. a copy of the Certificate of Incorporation, Memorandum and Articles of Association and audited financial statements of the company for the past two years;
 4. organisation of the company, company background and business activities/plan;
 5. an agreement between your company and a foreign arms supplier by whom you are assigned as a local agent (if applicable); and
 6. sketch/floor plan and detailed security measures (for applicants who intend to build their own armoury at the proposed premises); or
 7. an agreement between your company and other company which provides approved armoury for storage of your arms and ammunition (for applicants who intend to store the arms and ammunition at an approved armoury not owned by themselves).
- If you opt for submitting your application online, please call 2860 6538 as soon as practicable after your online submission for an interview arrangement with the Police Licensing Office. You will need to produce your Hong Kong Identity Card and submit the above documents required for application during the interview.
- Upon approval of the application, you will receive a confirmation e-mail from the Police Licensing Office. You are required to pay the prescribed fee within three months since the date of the confirmation e-mail. Otherwise, a fresh application will be necessary.
- You can pay online by following the instruction on the confirmation e-mail and call 2860 6536 to contact the Police Licensing Office afterwards for collection of your licence. You can also make an appointment with the Police Licensing Office for making payment in person and collecting licence on the same day.

C. Completion of Form

- In addition to online submission of application, applicants can submit their application form in person. All application form (paper form) shall be completed in Chinese or English (block letters) with a black or blue pen. The application form can be downloaded from the "Downloadable Forms" section of Hong Kong Police website at
