

Information Notes

Application for Licence for Possession / Addition of Arms (Individual)

A. Notes for Applicants

- When considering an application, the Commissioner of Police (“the Commissioner”) shall, in addition to any other matter that he may reasonably take into consideration, have regard to-
  1. whether the applicant is a fit and proper person to be granted a licence, such as
    - whether the applicant has any criminal record;
    - whether the applicant has any medical history which may affect his / her ability to possess and handle the arms and ammunition under application; and
    - whether the applicant’s physical and mental conditions are considered suitable.
  2. whether there is good reason for that applicant to hold a licence; and
  3. whether it is objectionable, for reasons of public safety and security, to grant the licence to that applicant.
- An application may normally be considered only if:
  1. you are currently a member of a local shooting / subaqua / crossbow / sports club;
  2. you are recommended by a local shooting / subaqua / crossbow / sports club to possess the arms under application;
  3. you have legitimate need to possess the arms under application; and
  4. the arms under application is to be used only for the purposes of recreation, sport and/or competition.
- When applying for amendment of licence to include additional arms, you should provide full justification and information for the proposed addition and detailed records of the use of the existing arms.
- If your application is for firearm or air gun, you will be required to undertake and pass an arms handling test arranged by the Police Licensing Office.
