This will be supplemented by a newspaper advertisement when considered necessary by the Chairperson, Police Welfare Fund Tender Board and on all occasions when less than five firms or contractors capable of doing the work are known. Selection of the most suitable offer will be made by the Police Welfare Fund Tender Board as stipulated in para. 9(f) above.

11. The waiver of tender procedures which would normally require the attention of the Tender Board, shall only be approved by the Commissioner of Police personally.

Police Welfare Fund - Estimates

12. The annual estimates of income and expenditure shall be prepared by FC in conjunction with CSP PS&SR in January each year. The estimates shall be submitted to the Management Committee for approval in March of the same year. Following approval of the estimates, funds may be expended during the financial year in accordance with the allocations set out in the estimates.

13. In October/November, FC in conjunction with CSP PS&SR shall prepare the revised estimates of the Fund's income and expenditure for submission to the Management Committee for endorsement. A final statement of account (un-audited) shall be submitted to the Management Committee as soon as possible after the 31st day of March each year.

Police Welfare Fund - Control of Expenditure

14. With the exception of the items for which grants are made in one single payment per annum, expenditure from recurrent items shall not exceed 50% of the approved annual provision during the first six months of the financial year. Where this limit is exceeded, the personal endorsement of ACP P shall be sought.

15. When the expenditure under a particular item is in excess of the approved provision and can be justified, CSP PS&SR shall seek ACP P's authority for virement between expenditure items and obtain additional funds from the Management Committee drawn from available cash balances in the Welfare Fund.

16. The total amount of loans granted to officers shall not exceed the prescribed limit for each financial year. As prescribed by Police Force (Welfare Fund) Regulation, Cap 232 the repayment of loans should not exceed 48 monthly instalments. Under normal circumstances, a loan shall be repaid within 10 months.

17. In an exceptional case where it is manifestly for the benefit of the Police Force that expenditure shall be immediately incurred, and time does not permit authority being obtained in the usual way, the CSP PS&SR, a SFWO or SSP CCS may, on their own responsibility, incur the expenditure but will at once take the necessary steps to apply for covering authority explaining the reasons that induced departure from the ordinary course.

Police Welfare Fund - Accounts

18. The accounts shall be kept in accordance with normal government accounting procedures by the Finance Division and shall be subject to audit by the Director of Audit.
