External Application for Assistance in Academic Research

I would like to seek assistance from the Hong Kong Police Force ("HKPF") in the following academic research.

Important Note

Application processing normally takes 40 working days after receiving the duly completed application form and full supplementary documents. You may be asked to provide additional information to facilitate the application. It is not possible to process your application if you fail to provide the information requested. A charge reflecting the costs incurred may be levied, in accordance with extant Force orders. Upon completion of the research, you must obtain confirmation from the HKPF that no sensitive, confidential or restricted information is contained therein.

This form is for external researchers seeking assistance from the HKPF to conduct surveys, interviews, focus groups or the like in the HKPF for academic purposes. Requests for information, which is readily accessible in existing records or publications held by the HKPF, should be made through application for access to information to the respective Major Formation Access to Information Officer.
